Try Being Santa Claus

It's the season for an editorial such as the famous "Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus." This editor does not have the language ability to compete with our New York predecessor.

Yes, readers, there is a Santa Claus—one too often associated with governments, federal, state and local. For ourselves we hope our readers will play Santa Claus and derive their greater holiday pleasure from giving and not from receiving.

Thankless Task

The naming of any public building can be a headache for those responsible. In fact it usually is. The board of the Bay St. Louis Separate Municipal School District now has that unenviable task. A name must be given the new elementary school on Dunbar Avenue.

People with an idea for a name have been asked to submit it before Jan. 7. We are confident the board will try to reach a decision satisfactory to the vast majority and wish them success. This paper hopes the school will not be named after a living person. Politics so often dictate this result that even when politics is no consideration the aroma is still there.

In any event, the people have been asked for suggestions. Those who fail to come forth with one are in no position to legitimately criticize the board if its action does not concur with their view.

They'll probably criticize any result anyhow.

Why Are They Paid?

In at least three states—Virginia, Georgia and Mississippi—this editor has experienced treatment by tax authorities that was much more helpful and considerate than that by Uncle Sammy's boys. The most helpful of all, it seems to us, has been in Mississippi.

By the same token, local custom relating to police activities seem to us to make Mississippi, or at least Gulf Coast Mississippi, a difficult place for law enforcement.

The other day the radiator of the car of a Hancock County visitor to Gulfport was badly dented while parked in a metered parking zone in Gulfport. A witness told the lady that a station wagon with tailgate lowered had backed into her car and gave her the color of license and its number but was unsure of the issuing state. The lady, upset, didn't do anything about it until she got home and then phoned, long distance, the Gulfport police.

Gulfport went according to an unwritten rule we have noticed in Hancock County. Only if the lady came to Gulfport and swore out a warrant would they do anything. They wouldn't investigate, they wouldn't do anything. They forgot their job.

Not having witnessed the accident, not knowing the state issuing the license much less the name of the automobile's owner or operator, the lady couldn't honestly swear out a warrant. The police could, because of the difference in what they have to swear to.

Wonder who the Gulfport police get to swear out the warrant when an unobserved murder occurs? The victim perhaps!

If the smiles seen around Hancock County during the Christmas season lasted all year, think what a grand thing it would be.

"Bikini" once referred only to an atoll; now it's a swim suit—nothing at all.

One person who has a right to be an egotist is he who correctly selects the fastest check-out line in a super market, especially on Christmas Eve.

A house divided can be rented for twice as much.

County Agent Notes

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Your county agent and the county Extension staff wish you all a very merry Christmas and a happy and profitable new year.

THINGS FOR THOUGHT

How about your cattle? Did they bring the prices you think they should have brought? Did they gain as they should? Did all of your cows have calves? Management might be the answer to these problems. How about improving the quality of cattle in your herd. Step up your feeding program. Keep records on the cows to see which calves regularly, and which do not.

What about your pastures; were they weedy? Chemicals are now on the market that will help you keep weeds from taking over your pastures. Try some fertilizer on your pasture next year. Might pay you off real big.

How were your milk checks? Did your dairy cows make you a profit? Might check into your management and feeding here. Which of your cows is paying her own way, plus the board of a loader or two? Which are losers? There again is a place records will help. Why not decide to keep some good records

From Our Files By Gone Days

10 YEARS AGO

Dec. 23, 1949—Leo L. Kennedy was elected president of the St. Stanislaus Side-Line Club at the annual football banquet in honor of the Rock-A-Claw Monday night at the Hotel Reed, W. L. Reader was elected vice president and Brother Edmund, ex-officio secretary.

25 YEARS AGO

Dec. 21, 1934—Bay St. Louis voters at the polls last Saturday accepted the proposed ordinance granting a franchise to Senator R. B. Kest and others to bring natural gas into Bay St. Louis for domestic and general utility and industrial purposes. Three hundred and forty-six voted for the proposition while 14 cast their votes against.

Views from Other Papers

The Fabulous Fifties saw the Mississippi Gulf Coast develop beyond any other decade in the area's history.

As for the 1960s, there is no doubt that the Mississippi Gulf Coast will be on the boom. There are few clouds on the horizon. Among these it is easy to foresee that good government is essential if the Coast realizes fully on its great objectives. It is unfortunate that the Mississippi Gulf Coast has gained for itself a reputation for creating and tolerating corrupt government. And that isn't good for a God-fearing community endeavoring to rise above itself.

Among other clouds that darken our future is community dissension. We cannot capitalize on our resources and opportunities as a community divided against itself. Give the Mississippi Gulf Coast good government and a united people and we could make a record in the next ten years of which our children could be proud. —THE DIXIE GUIDE.

My Favorite Prayer

REV. EDWARD F. HUDSON
 Rector, Ingatstone Parish Church, England.

O God of speed Whose angel host Fly with swift pace at Thy command
 Central our haste from pest to post
 And bless the highways of our land.

O God of courtesy, we ask
 That men may travel on Thy road
 With speed and safety to their task
 And reach in peace a safe abode.

If you can't remember what you did last New Year's Eve, plan a quieter time this year.

It isn't smoking that's habit-forming; it's giving it up that is so hard to acquire.

Christmas Is Of The Heart And Not Of The Head Or Pocket Book

"Merry Christmas!" . . . magic words. They bring thoughts of fir trees, tinsel stars, Dickens' "Christmas Carols," egg nog, be-ribboned packages . . . all those small details which make up an American holiday.

But, after all, what is Christmas? Does it stem from one of Dickens' stories? Is it a national holiday declared in recognition of all the surplus fir trees in the forests, or voted by the Tinsel Star Manufacturers' Union. Of course not! It is the birthday of Jesus Christ, the God man, who began life as the infant Son of a carpenter and his spouse Mary and ended it with His limbs tortuously stretched on a cross on Calvary Hill. And less and less every year does the American Christmas show that it realizes the immense meaning of Christ's birth and His ultimate sacrifice for us.

Of course, many agree that they are keeping Christmas in the traditional manner, and point out that the gifts which they exchange commemorate the offering of the Magi to the Infant; that the glittering star atop their tree is a symbol of that star which guided the Three Kings and the shepherds to the stable. To this we reply that there are much better ways to preserve the spirit of the season; ways more pleasing to the Christ Child.

And so, although we too take great pleasure in "Merry Christmas" and in all that it entails, we would like to change it slightly, and to wish each and every one of our readers a truly glorious Christmas, because,—"Unto you is born a Savior, Who is Christ the Lord!" —St. Joseph Academy Sea Sprite.

The Lights of Christmas

Christmas lights are everywhere
 To bless the world again!
 Haloed candles' golden flames
 At every windowpane—

Lamplight streaming cheerily
 From welcoming doors flung wide—
 Firelight soft on little heads
 That dream of Santa's ride—

Starshine drifting from the sky—
 Lights that bob and glow
 As dancing lanterns mark the way
 The merry carollers go—

O lovely Christmas lights that make
 The world a wondrous place,
 Show us the way until we see
 The glory of His face!

Merchants, Mothers Make Waveland Party a Success

It was trees, four of them this year as Waveland School held its annual Christmas party Friday afternoon. The parties were held in the classrooms instead of the auditorium due to construction of the new lunchroom which is being connected to the school. The builders had obligingly delayed tearing down the side wall of the auditorium the previous week to allow the Christmas play and pageant to be presented.

The party, sponsored by the Waveland Parents Club with the help of teachers and donations from local merchants, is always a big event for the children. Santa Claus appeared and each child receives a toy, a filled stocking, fruit, cookies and other refreshments.

The parents Club started the ball rolling this year by contributing $5 to each room for their party, then the room mothers, teachers and others obtained donations to make the parties a success. The room mothers for Miss Mary Margaret's Turcotte's first graders were Mrs. John Hayward and Mrs. Joy Johnson, Mrs. A. J. Chagnard and Mrs. Thomas Lankford, room mothers for Miss Cecile Turcotte's second grade, Mrs. Effie Mazarakis' 3rd grade room mothers were Mrs. Paul Marano and Mrs. M. F. Weeks and for Miss Mary Perkins' fourth graders, Mrs. Lee Ferrell, Mrs. John Hayward assisted by Mrs. Tom Karl and Mrs. Sidney Bonvillian.

Many merchants and mothers donated to help make this Christmas season one long to be remembered by the children. Among them were Bob Torgersen, Mrs. G. Mollere, D. E. Wilcox, Mrs. Oswald Villere, Mrs. Cornelius Herlihy, Dave McDonald, Mrs. Nona Zimmermann, Mrs. Charles Ferry, Mrs. E. Socola, Blossman's Gas, Lee Ferrell, Mrs. Brewster Mollere and all of the room mothers who made cash donations, Chadwick's Trading Post donated oranges, Scrimshaw's apples; Winn-Dixie, fruit; Colson's, candy canes; Purty Reise, Sears, Woolworth and McCroly's and Mrs. Thomas Brockman, candy; Lee Ferrell, candy and toys for stockings as did Mrs. Sam Periniario and Mrs. Compretta, Cookies and cupcakes were made by Mrs. Joe Torny, Mrs. Paul Marano, Mrs. Cuevas and Mrs. Guffy and The Borden Company contributed the egg nog, and Mrs. W. J. Anton, stockings for the second and fourth grades.

Leprechauns, love and magic are the ingredients of Darby O'Gill and the Little People showing at A and G Theater Sunday and Monday.

Starring Janet Munro and produced by Walt Disney, the movie deals with an estate's caretaker, his daughter (and beaux) and those sometimes-spiteful Irish little folks, the leprechauns, a smaller version of spirits than even the dwarfs in Snow White and the seven Dwarfs.

Some people are more critical of cars than others, and they are the ones we want specially to drive the solid new Plymouth.

This car is built a new solid way by Chrysler Corporation engineers. It simply doesn't have many parts that work loose and need fixing in some cars. We'd like to answer some questions about this car now:

Q. What is this new way of building?

A. Chrysler Corporation's virtually trouble-free version of unit construction. Body and underbills are joined in a single unit of enormous strength, locked by close to 5400 welds. In Dura-Quiet Unibody, there is no frame and no conventional body bolts, struts, braces, etc., to loosen and rattle.

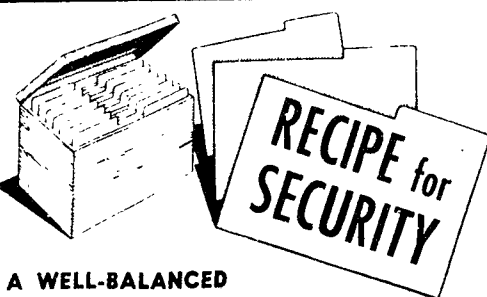

Q. What about power and performance?

A. There's the new 30-1 Economy Six, a new "inclined" six that delivers outstanding economy in normal driving. The standard V-8 is the Fury V-800 which three times in a row topped its class in the Mobilgas Economy Run. Or you may choose the extra-cost SonaRamic Commando V-8.

If you ask us, this is the best built, best performing low-price car of all. Give it a real try soon, won't you?

A Chrysler-engineered product, built a new solid way to give you solid satisfaction.

YOU MEANIE! — Bay High's Bill Watts, No. 45, appears about to slap North Central's Berlin Necaise, No. 30, during the Long Beach tournament.

Hawks Capture Long Beach Title

Hancock's North Central Hawks, led by coach James Johnson, invaded Harrison County last week and brought home top honors in the Long Beach tournament, routing the Red Rebels of Harrison Central 74-50 Saturday night in the finals.

The Hawks now have a 17-1 record, their only defeat being a 1-point loss to Pelahatchie whom they had defeated by 11 points last year during the opening festivities at North Central.

The Necaise boys were in fine form Saturday, winning every quarter by a wide margin. They jumped off to a 7-point lead in the first quarter, increasing it to 16 at the half and were never headed.

Douglas treated the spectators to his usual spectacular performance, stealing the ball and streaking down court for a lay-up. He flipped in 31 points, Wayne 15, Donald 9, Barney 5, John 4, Berlin 2, McCann, Peterson, and Eulice Lachner 2 each.

The Red Rebels' Roland Lachner scored 16, Gale Farmer 12, and Mrs. Seal entertained a group at their home on North Beach before the party.

Christmas decorations at the club were highlighted by a Christmas corsage tree for the ladies. Special entertainment was provided by a quartet from Kessler Air Force Base and a Gulf Coast orchestra.

Among employees receiving special cash awards for perfect attendance during the past year were Mrs. Leonide Cabell and Miss Doris Carrio of the Bay St. Louis bank.

Hubert A. Buggage, Negro, of New Orleans escaped injury about 5 p.m. Friday when his 1955 Mercury overturned on U. S. 90 near the Route 43 intersection.

Buggage apparently lost control of the auto when it hit a rut on the side of the roadway, skidded across the highway and overturned, according to investigators.

Members exchanged Yule gifts at the conclusion of the meeting and Mrs. Robin and the co-hostesses, Mesdames E. Jenkins, C. Hannah and Myron Smith served delicious refreshments.

begin to draw away and were never headed, winning the third by 12 and the fourth by 8.

The Tigers have won five out of seven games this year, their two defeats being at the hands of North Central, Coach Wilmer Seymour of Bay High said the boys were in good shape for this game and had no excuses other than that they were beaten by a good team, possibly one of the best in the area.

Douglas got into the 30's again, scoring an even 30, Donald made 11, John 10, Barney 6, Berlin 4 and Donald Ray 4.

Field Goal Costs Jays Tournament

One field goal cost St. Joseph's Blue Jays the Long Beach sectional tournament championship Saturday night when they dropped a heartbreaker to Perkins 41-39.

After completing one overtime period the score was tied at 37-37. Another overtime brought it to 39-39 and when it appeared that the girls would go on all night, officials agreed that the first team scoring in the third overtime period would be declared the winner.

The lasses from Perkins came out strong to take the first quarter by 5 points but the Jays took the second period by 7 to lead at halftime 22-20. Perkins eked out a 1-point advantage in each of the third and fourth quarters to tie up the game.

Delores Bond drove for a lay-up in the third overtime for the winning margin.

Guards Margo Jacobi, Sheila Gottschalk and Sheila Surdivant did a fine job of holding down Perkins' 6-foot pivot, Barbara Patton, limiting Perk to two field goals in the second half, one in each quarter. The tallest girl on the Jay's squad measures 5'-7".

Starring for the Jays was Elizabeth Krieger with 27 points and for Perkins, Barbara rang up 24.

12 Stills Destroyed In County

Twelve illicit distillery operations at Rocky Hill and Vidalia were destroyed Dec. 15 by federal agents, guided by a U. S. Coast Guard helicopter.

No actual seizures of whisky or arrests were made by the agents because the helicopter gave too much advance warning to the tax violators, according to Fred Shanks, area supervisor of the U. S. Treasury Department's Alcohol and Tobacco Tax division at Gulfport.

Shanks said 7,922 gallons of whisky mash were destroyed in the raid. The largest illicit operation hit by axe-wielding agents was a 120-gallon capacity drum still, with 36 60-gallon capacity drum fermenters, where 2,016 gallons of whisky mash were destroyed about two miles southeast of Rocky Hill.

The rest of the mash was an accumulation from other small operations, said Shanks.

He said the helicopter from Coast Guard 8th District headquarters at New Orleans served as a spotter in guiding the revenue agents on the operations.

Participating in the raids in addition to Shanks were investigators G. L. Lewis, Howard Vidrine and D. W. Doyle of the Gulfport office; D. A. Stewart and L. Campbell of Pascagoula; and R. H. Cranford and T. R. Williams of Hattiesburg.

We are happy to report that Andy Becker is doing nicely and was able to be home for a short time this week.

The proposed renovation of the home seems to have taken the course of its predecessors—it is slowly "dying" and will probably be shelved for the time being.

The program to construct a shrine adjacent to the home has been re-activated and it is hoped that all the next meeting details will be completed and that this dream of several members will become a reality.

Congratulations to the Knights in the Long Beach area who have worked so hard to establish a council in that city. Approval from the Supreme Council has been received and a Charter Member Night will be held soon. This becomes the sixth council in the 4th District.

Jan. 3 is the next date of monthly communion. As usual members will attend 7 o'clock mass at Our Lady of Gulf Church and breakfast will be served in the Parish Hall.

The Grand Knight urges all to attend and assures you that the breakfast committee will be there on all future dates.

The Council wishes all a MERRY CHRISTMAS and a most JOYFUL AND HAPPY NEW YEAR. Let's keep CHRIST IN CHRISTMAS.

Shoulda Gone Fishin'

Christmas shopping and plans for the big event cut in heavily on fishing time last week but those who were lucky enough to salvage gasoline and bait money met with some success. Camp owners on Bayou Caddy report not too much activity but some fair catches were made. Ansley continued to be hot on occasions. Pearl and Jordan Rivers are producing for some rollers and deep-running lure casters.

Donald Luch and his brother-in-law from Poplarville trolled the bayous around Lake-shore Sunday but had little luck. They put away their rods and went out for mullet, bringing home about 300 pounds of the sweet-meated fish.

Buck Ladner caught four specks around the pipeline canal. He fished out of LaFrance's. Junior Breath says he has been too busy helping Santa Claus to go fishing but did make a short cruise up the Jordan Sunday and noticed a number of boats anchored in Bayou La Poudre. Pas LaFrance tells us he is unable to get live bait but good catches are being made every day on lures. The water should stay good for quite a while but even when it is bad in the bayous it is often good in the new pipeline canal, he said.

Henry Pulliano says he heard the rabbits are jumping and plans to go this week with his son, SP-4 Joseph Pulliano.

James Travirca of Bay St. Louis, Albert N. Grass and Felton Cuevas of Waveland were hunting Sunday and bagged a rabbit. Did you say a or eight, Ellis?

"Like it'll be real tough to go back to the red bean and rice routine after this, man."

"Yeah, I'm getting tired of the 40-cent a pound round steak my wife has been feeding me."

"What kind of round steak do you get for 40-cents a pound?"

"Bologna."

Push Button Fish Scaling

The push-button electric fish scaler, a two-finger operation, according to the manufacturer, Dremel Manufacturing Co., Racine, Wis. William E. Dremel, inventor and designer, is an avid fisherman himself. While testing the scaler, he found other uses for the unit. He discovered that with simple attachments he could take care of other important fishing chores such as cleaning and polishing hooks and knives. So he included these gadgets in the kit.

The company has developed four different versions to fit the requirements of any fisherman including deluxe models with attached motors.

Gone are the days of nicked knuckles, pierced fingers, and scattered scales, if this manufacturer has its way.

Board Conveys... (Cont. from Page 1.) The pastor said he would prefer to buy the building outright but Board Attorney Walter L. Phillips cited that state law provides sale only by sealed bids for the highest price.

The law also states that conveyed property can be used to promote civic, social, cultural causes, allowing only classes of a religious nature or during vacation periods.

Presenting form resolutions for conveyance, Phillips said the attorney general had informed him that property in the name of a school board can be disposed of by that body when it is declared no longer needed. There had been some question about whether the school body or board of supervisors had the right to sell.

Checking back on its resolution authorizing temporary use of the buildings last summer showed no provision was made for these users to pay for utilities and the board elected to pay those bills. Teachers occupying quarters at Kilm had agreed to pay their share on a pro-rata basis while those at Sellers are handling theirs. Some question arose over a $27 electric bill at Dedaux which no group uses but Phillips noted it had been used for three elections and several political rallies.

Disconnecting power and gas at Dedaux and Kilm was tabled until the board reconvenes at 1:30 p.m., Monday after Trustee S. P. Powell argued that action was tantamount to declaring the property vacant.

Further winding up disposal of buildings no longer used, Superintendent E. E. Breland was directed to notify the Clermont Harbor Civic Assn. that insurance on the former school it uses will be discontinued Jan. 1, as will that for Leetown.

As trustees examined various bills, Breland reported that about $400 worth of butane gas has been used for heating so far at North Central whereas $200 had been anticipated. The power bill reflected extensive use of electrical appliances, he added.
